Fun

I am proud of myself for completing the Great Wall of China Marathon this year! I was able to accomplish this by continuing to eliminate processed foods, meat and dairy from my diet. I also have been cross training at the gym lifting weights 3 days a week and riding my bike 3 to 4 times a week. This really improved my strength and muscle tone! Nick and I loved China and were happy that we took the time to learn a bit of the language and about the history of the country before we went on our trip. I am a member of the Portland Strings Orchestra! I stuck to my goal of weekly lessons and have been practicing 4 days a week. This tenacity really paid off.

Career

My company is completely transformed and the Team is rocking it! I'm only working with my top 25 clients doing taxes and have dedicated my time to speaking, writing and training CEOs. We are really changing lives and making an impact. Beth is blossoming as a full time executive coach and Emily has stepped into the role of signing account manager. I knew she could do it! Our Team has exactly the right people in the right roles. I couldn't be happier. My book is due to be released in January 2021 so I am very excited about that! New chapters again! I so enjoy meeting new people who have similar mindsets and learning from them. Due to all of the changes I am able to give back to the community in ways that I never thought possible.

Financial

Nick and I love our Mastersuite. It was worth paying cash along the way and taking time to do things right. Our plans for the back unit have been accepted by the City and we are getting ready to pour the foundation for that project. Jenna and Sam only have one more year of university left and they still do not have any student loans. I call this a WIN! The proceeds from the sale of the RV last year came in really handy when paying for their schooling. Our debts are all paid off (except the mortgage on the original house) and we are able to give back financially to the community in BIG ways. Staying in sequence has always been key for me. I am glad we are being obedient. Life is good. God is Good!!
